The Mountain: How is the skiing - will it be too hard?

Jackson Hole's reputation for steep and deep precedes it, eh? Yes, there's plenty of powder and pitches, but here's a little known fact: Jackson Hole Mountain Resort is a great a place for beginners to learn how to ski and for intermediates keen to cruise long groomers. Beginner and intermediate trails make up half of our terrain, meaning that our non-advanced/expert terrain acreage – 1250 acres – is larger than many ski resorts' total terrain.

While we are famous for the Aerial Tram and expert chutes, they're only half the story: Bridger Gondola and Apres Vous Quad access the mellow side of the mountain, and the new and improved Casper area caters to intermediates. We highly recommend lessons with our Mountain Sports School, and if you're looking for a little more challenge, you might consider a Steep and Deep Camp or Backcountry Guide.

We also offer complimentary Mountain Host tours. Get to know the mountain through an intermediate guided tour on groomed terrain by one of our fabulous Hosts. Tours run daily at 9:30 AM and meet outside Walk Festival Hall beside the Gondola loading dock.

What to do in Jackson Hole:

Recreation in Jackson Hole is as boundless as the land itself. Its rugged terrain inspires rugged activity and creativity. Whether trekking to the top of a mountain or taking in the art those adventures inspire, there is more to do in Jackson Hole than meets the eye. With myriad outdoor and indoor diversions, this small town has a big cultural footprint.

From the hub of downtown Jackson radiates many spokes worthy of exploration. Galleries, restaurants and boutiques ring Town Square making a day downtown a busy one, while trails into the Bridger Teton National Forest make tromping through the snow possible within town limits. Snow King, the Town Hill as it is known, hosts steep skiing, ice skating and hockey games.

A short drive north of town, the National Museum of Wildlife Art is a valley gem, federally recognized as the definitive site for wildlife art. Across the highway, thousands of elk winter on the National Elk Refuge, the winter habitat for the Jackson Hole elk herd. Grand Teton National Park, a mere 15 minutes away, spans 96,000 acres of pristine wilderness. Travel north an hour more and reach Yellowstone National Park – a vast, otherworldly expanse rife with bison herds, wolf packs and gurgling geothermal features waiting to be explored by snowshoe, snowcoach or snowmobile!

The Lebanon Ski Club STRONGLY encourages members to purchase Trip Insurance

As part of our group ski package booked with Winter Ski and Sport, there is an option to purchase cost-effective Travel Insurance to cover potential expenses due to cancellations, trip delay or medical needs during the trip.

Travel Guard's All Seasons Travel Plan costs 7% of your total trip cost. They also offer a Cancel For Any Reason plan which costs 11.2% (the 2nd policy option must be purchased within 21 days of initial trip deposit, while the first plan may be purchased at any time). A flyer describing the two policies is attached. You may purchase either with a credit card on the web or call Travel Guard using the information on the flyer.

The following "hints" may help with the process: Click on the link on the flyer or go to http://travelguard.com/agentlink.asp?ta\_arc=247146&pcode=SVPP to obtain a quote or purchase the insurance. After selecting your state of residence from the pull-down menu, clicking the More Info button will let you examine the features of either plan. When you're ready to purchase one of the plans, the application form is pretty self-explanatory, but here are a few tips: Agent Email is not required. From the Tour Operator pull-down menu, select Winter Ski and Sport. Type-in the resort name for Destination City. On Page 2 of the application, Agent Email is again optional; you should leave Agent Name/Initials blank. Purchase regular All Season's Travel Plan within 21 days of your initial trip deposit, then "pre-existing conditions" clauses are waived.
