President's Message

Let it snow! It's time to start sending your snow requests to Khione and Ullr. Khione, in Greek mythology, is indeed the goddess of the snow. A delightful deity, she sits in the heavens sprinkling the sparkling flakes over the earth. Ullr, god of winter and snow in Norse mythology, loves the cold as well as traversing the country on his skis. He delights in the chase through the forest. Glades, anyone?

Trips are being finalized so please check in with Heidi, Deb and Paul with questions and concerns. At this writing, there may still be available space for a couple more participants. Our trip leaders will be presenting at the December meeting so please come prepared with your payments.

Join us at our annual Christmas dinner Tuesday, December 8th for fellowship, food, and fun! The family style meal is the club's gift to you, as well as an array of door prizes. Meeting time is 7:00 p.m.

It's always a great pleasure to meet and mingle with fellow members, and now is the time to start thinking about planning an impromptu trip or two to our local slopes. We will have more information about available lift tickets in mid-December. Watch your email or tune into our Facebook page or website for more information.

From the entire Board of your Lebanon Ski Club, Merry Christmas to All, and God Bless!

Jane
