President's Message

Wow! What a fabulous spring and summer. The club was very busy hiking, biking, eating, kayaking, climbing, wining, singing in the rain, dancing, watching the flood waters, maneuvering round the every imaginable canine species at the Mutt-Strutt, dodging rail trail gates, and did I mention eating, and more. Thanks to all who set up, joined in, and provided fun for all.

Can you believe how fast our favorite season is approaching? Yet, we still have quite a lot of fun leading up to and for the fall and winter.

Our September 11th meeting kicks off with a picnic on the patio at Heisey's Diner. Arrive any time after 5:30pm and bring an ending if you'd like. Dinner is on the club with the meeting to follow. We're in the big room if there is rain.

Alumni and potential members welcome! See within for more info.

We're still trying to set up another local rail trail bike ride, as soon as we review the condition of the trails. Anne & Gordie's famous Atlantic City Trip is coming up on Oct 7th, and Karen Wampler has put together a fantastic inaugural Wine Weekend in the Finger Lakes for Oct 20th and 21st. See inside for all the details. Don't miss it.

What a great slate of winter trips: Elk/Montage (PA), Killington (VT), Aspen/Snowmass (CO), and Whitefish (MT) Please see inside the news for details. Contact trip leaders for availability.

You forgot to pay your membership? Oooops. There is a form in this newsletter. Bring to the meeting or send to Deb Binkley. Looking forward to seeing you all again! ~Jane
