President's Message

Oh the SNOW that some of our travelers have enjoyed! And still, some of us continue to travel in search of whiter pastures. We can be grateful for safe travels and fun times.

Thanks to our trip leaders! You have a critical job in caring for the welfare and comfort of our members. And that's true for our week long western trips, our super popular eastern bus trip, our dandy weekender, day trippers, and our jaunt across the pond. Unless you have personally run a trip, it is difficult to realize what goes in to every detail. The trip leader lives and breathes the trip for many months in preparation and execution. I know our members have expressed gratitude for what you do. We thank you, we appreciate you, and we hope that you will continue to lead us!

There are fun activities in store for the spring and summer. See the articles within this news. And, don't forget about your membership obligation – dues are due for the April meeting.

I'll add a plug here for United Way Day of Caring on April 18th, and also that volunteers are needed again starting in May for the Root Beer Barrel. Thank you in advance, Just give me a call to sign up.

See you soon!

~Jane

Like No Place on Earth !!

Awesome/Unbelievable/Excellent- Those were comments describing our week of Vail Mountain Skiing. Friday before we arrived Vail received 24" of fresh powder. The snow let up for our safe travel to the Hyatt Hotel but snowed another 13" Saturday night into Sunday, Fresh Powder everywhere!!

Another 2" on Tuesday with a grand finale of 6" Thursday night into Friday morning. Vail was a playground of fresh powder and great skiing.

The Hyatt Hotel was phenomenal, our own private ski lift, ski room with heated boots and skis delivered lift side daily, heated infinity pool/hot tub with creek/mountain views or visiting the condo units hot tub steps from your condo. Many of the Ski Club Members took advantage of the Hyatt Hotel daily après - champagne/delicious cookies/hot chocolate.

Everyone enjoyed the Saturday night pizza party which included a representative from Vail and Hyatt Hotel available to answer our questions.

At the Tuesday après get together which included something for everyone; lamb meatballs, meat/cheese boards, calamari, sweet potato hummus and truffle frites to mention a few, the stories were flying about all the powder and great skiing runs out there to enjoy. The new members hooked up with present members to enjoy a day of skiing, whether it was the groomers or back bowls.

It was an amazing trip- good company/food/skiing.

Thank you all for making our week at Vail- Like No Place on Earth

Anne

On January 22nd, 45 travelers boarded the bus, along with an awesome drive from the Easton Coach Company. The trip went off without a hitch and from the feedback, everyone had a good time. We took two bus trips for dinner, Thursday night and Friday night. The weather cooperated, but alas, no fresh powder, but reasonable temps.

We shared the Commodores Inn with the Harvard Ski Team on Thursday and Friday nights, and on Friday night a bus load of youngsters arrived. It Stays Pretty Quiet With All Of Us!!

Took a poll on the return trip – Okemo was the overall favorite for 2021!
