COMMITTEE REPORTS

TRIP OVERSIGHT – Lake Placid had one room open up due to the Lay family cancellation. A refund will be pending. A payment to Banchi Outdoors will be needed shortly. Banff still needs a single male. Deadline is approaching fast for closing the trip. Snowmass trip is full with 27 travelers. Most are current with their payments. Elk/Elk trip has added a second lodging choice....Endless Mountain Resort which is about three miles from the slope. A condo that sleeps 5 with 2 ½ bath and kitchenette. As of now, Elk hasn't released their lift ticket rates. Eight rooms were need for last year's trip.

PROGRAMS – November's meeting will have John and Helen Stitzel sharing their trip to Africa. Paul also mentioned that the activities coordinator at a local 55+ community is interested in having us make a presentation about the club's activities. Deb B. mentioned a new bike shop in Quentin that might be an option as a future guest speaker.

TREASURER – G. Shutter presented all board members a report. A bank balance of $78,720.69.

SECRETARY – Nothing to report

MEMBERSHIP – Nothing to report

PUBLICATION – Deb reported on a number of bounced back newsletters & blasts and a number of club members reported an email hack. Discussion ensued comparing the services of Constant Contact vs Mail Chimp. They're similar in price and service in the next level which comes with a cost. The service can be bought on a month trial basis before entering into a yearly contract but the yearly would be cheapest. On motion of C. Riegel, 2nd by D. Bemesderfer it was authorized to engage an upgraded version of Mail Chimp.

SOCIAL COORDINATOR – The menu and cost for the Christmas dinner was discussed. The cost will be $16.90 pp, includes tax and gratuity. The menu includes tossed salad, baked ham , roast turkey, filling, sweet potato, broccoli, carrots and assorted pies. A $10 per club member will be collected at the door. Billmyers will provide table centerpieces as prizes, Karen will provide two games, Dave Clark will provide a musical game and the ugly sweater contest will make a comeback. Heisey gift certificates in the amount of $25 each will be the prize for these events. A number of members will be providing gifts for the ticket raffle. The drawing for the Rescue Mission food donation prize will also occur.

NEW BUSINESS

The EPSC is offering a Sun Valley, ID fam trip. Suggested representation to check it out but negative feedback was expressed about the destination.

Adjourned at 8:09 pm on motion of A .Shutter, 2nd by D. Bemederfer.
