PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi everyone,

We just wrapped up an incredible week at Sunday River! Between the blue skies, mid-week fresh powder, and a fantastic crew of 19 travelers, it couldn't have been better. Whether flying or driving, everyone made it safely and enjoyed some great meals and live music around Bethel.

I'm also looking forward to hearing all about the recent Seven Springs excursion—be sure to share your stories at this month's meeting!

While our official trips are "in the books" for the season, the Northeast still has plenty of great skiing left. Keep an eye on your email, and if you're planning a solo or small group run, let us know! Others might want to jump in.

Upcoming Meeting Details:

- When: March 10th
- Program: Matt Hershey from Jubilee Ministries will be sharing the impactful work they do within the PA prison system.

Finally, as we look toward warmer weather, we are officially open for ideas! If you have a favorite spot for hiking, biking, or kayaking, let's get it on the spring/summer calendar.

See you on the 10th!

Chris Riegel
